

Change the active tense to the passive

SAMPLE: The principal had made an error.

An error had been made by the principal.

We used a good resource to help the students learn their tables.

I followed the college procedure when assessing the student.

I reported the incident to the safety officer.

We have expressed concerns about the behaviour of some of the students.