

Length, Weight Height

Imperial and Metric

Make a list of all the different measurements you use in your course or could use in your course.

Think about the measurement of materials in your course

Course specific terminology might need to be used